

NOTICE!!

We are ready for your help in complying with the EPA-required Water Service Line Inventory! This week we will be sharing an online survey that will walk you through steps to identify your water line material as it comes into your home. If your home was built before 1988, we request your help in this matter by taking 2 minutes to complete the survey. Watch for the link this week!